

JOE THE BUM

THE SMARTEST BUM ON THE PLANET!

When Busta Moose has a question or a riddle from one of his arch enemies and needs an answer now, who are you going to call???? Joe The Bum!

Joe is the smartest bum on the planet and the unknown son of Albert.

Joe, very much looks and talks like Albert Einstein but unfortunately is more of the “outdoors type”.

When Busta Moose needs to find Joe he deploys the Moose Drone which calls out “Hey Joe,, What do you know?”

Joe walks onto the set pushing his shopping cart of personal desirables. These desirables contain everything from books on quantum mechanics, medical procedures, black holes and pretty much anything Joe can get his hands on, including a bit of leftovers!
