

CO2 is a worldwide monster and almost impossible to stop!

CO2 can pollute the air and change the weather thus creating weapons of lightening and fireballs.

His goal is not only to destroy Busta Moose and friends but the whole planet!

He was recruited by Dick Tator to join his evil crew in exchange for Dick telling the world that Global Warming is nothing but a myth and not to worry about it!

CO2 is nearly impossible to stop and can't eat any of Mary's Love Muffins. The only defence against CO2 is Ping's spinning numb chucks that can suck him into a sweet and sour sauce bottle.
